

50 Ideas for Under 50 People

New ideas when thinking about your next meeting, reward program or recognition event.

Go 100% Virtual

Consider moving your meetings to a 100% virtual model. Benefits include cost effectiveness increased attendance, inclusivity and a smaller carbon footprint.

Meet

Celebrate Virtually

Host a virtual celebration – send boxed cocktail kits or snack boxes before the virtual meeting or event

Recognize

Gift Cards to Local Restaurants

Reward with a thank you note and gift card to a local restaurant. Give employees the option of dining out or ordering in depending on their preferences.

Reward

Create Virtual Networking Lounges

Create networking opportunities with chat lounges where attendees can connect with others.

Meet

Going The Extra Mile

Recognize employees who go “the extra mile” by gifting them with rewards such as gas cards & transit passes.

Recognize

Gourmet Dinner Masterclass

Send a curated gift box with a signed cookbook, ingredients, and bottle of wine along with a recipe card. Guests can sign on to a virtual master class taught by a celebrity chef.

Reward

“Speed Dating” Style Meeting Sessions

Arrange for short “speed dating” style appointments during virtual meetings allowing attendees to connect for private discussions.

Meet

Shout Out

Never underestimate the power of a shout out to recognize an employee for a job well done. Employees who feel appreciated will always put in the extra effort.

Recognize

Online Fitness Application

In lieu of the once popular corporate gym membership, reward employees with subscriptions to their favourite fitness apps.

Reward

Make Use of Virtual Break Out Rooms

Create virtual breakout rooms to effectively accomplish the learning goals achieved at in person meetings.

Meet

Stay tuned for the next part in this series!

ævias