

50 Ideas for Under 50 People

New ideas when thinking about your next meeting, reward program or recognition event.

Book Larger Spaces for In Person Meetings

When selecting meeting venues, look at bigger spaces with high ceilings, windows that open for ventilation and space for socially distanced seating.

Meet

Upgrade Office Equipment

Buy your staff new ergonomic desk chairs, upgrade software solutions. Give everyone a small budget to spend on an item that will improve their office space.

Recognize

Give Back Travel Rewards

Reward with a "give back" travel opportunity. Employees can choose experiences such as cleaning shorelines in the Caribbean, working in an elephant sanctuary or Sea Turtle rescue etc.

Reward

Spatially Distanced Seating

Use creative meeting room set ups to achieve social distance in a plenary session such as larger lounge chairs with side tables.

Meet

Company Branded Swag

Recognize hard work with a branded quality apparel, water bottles, thermal travel mugs etc. Employees will feel appreciated and show their company pride when they wear or use their swag.

Recognize

Wine Tasting or Brewery Tour

Treat your team with an afternoon wine tasting or tour a local craft brewery. Educational and fun, you will also be supporting a local small business.

Reward

Branded PPE Kits

Create and distribute branded PPE kits at in person meetings. Include branded masks, small bottles of sanitizer and wipes.

Meet

Warm Welcome

Celebrate the return of employees who have been away for an extended time. Bring in coffee and muffins on their first day back. Let them know you value their return.

Recognize

Food Trucks

Book food trucks to come to your office parking lot and treat your staff to lunch. Always a great opportunity for team bonding.

Reward

Schedule Longer Breaks

Offer longer breaks giving attendees more time to wash their hands and make extra sanitizing/hand-washing stations available.

Meet

Stay tuned for the next part in this series!

aevias